Souster

From the Medieval English "Soustere, Sewester, Sowester", from the old English "Seowian", to sew. English occupational name for a tailor, a seamstress or for one who sews.

Tweed is a staple garment in a wardrobe, and there are so many fine British tweed fabrics to choose from to create your personalised style.

At Souster & Hicks, we will help you choose the right weight tweed for your individuality, and showcase hundreds of impressive styles, hues and shades to suit every occasion; whether that be a night out, country shoots, a day at the races, your wedding, or even a workwear tweed.

PLATINUM BY SCUDERI

Platinum by Scuderi is our brand new made-to-measure canvassed product, for the fans of soft Italian tailoring.

Steeped in 70 years of tradition, this family tailoring house is located on the outskirts of Rome, and crafts garments to the quality of top Italian brands such as Zegna.

Scuderi uses a full canvas construction with padded chest piece and lapel for that softer Italian feel. Unlike the Black Label, you have the option to upgrade to handmade buttonholes. The choice of in-house stock fabrics includes Zegna, Loro Piana, Drago and Cacciopoli.

Wedding Suits for your big day

Whether your wedding is set in the English countryside, in the city or a beach thousands of miles away, Souster & Hicks can tailor your bespoke wedding suit to your exact needs.

If your venue is rustic and set in the English countryside during wintertime, a tweed would be a great choice. For a more formal summer affair in the UK or abroad, a lightweight marino wool can deliver that style and comfort on what might be a hot day.

An amazing suit, delivered with amazing service. Geoff, Scott and Wes are absolutely first class in everything they do. I have the most beautiful suit from them that I wore overseas to get married in. I wore it again when we had a UK reception and I can't wait to find a reason to put it back on again soon! The quality, the finish, the feel of it - just impeccable.

Women's Tailoring

Whether you require perfectly fitted shirts for work, a beautiful cashmere coat, a tweed casual jacket or business wear to make an impression.

It's safe to say my days of buying Balmain jackets has come to an end. I don't know why I'd ever spend that much for a jacket that doesn't fit me properly, when I can spend the same amount and have one made completely bespoke, and to my size and proportions perfectly. I think buying tailoring like this has been really popular with men in the past, but my goodness – that is changing!
